

A large background image of various succulent plants, including Echeveria and Sedum, in shades of green and blue. A white rectangular frame is centered over the image, containing the main text.

URBAN VITALITY INSPIRED BY NATURE

EXPLORE HOW NATURE DESIGNS SOLUTIONS TO CHALLENGES LIKE:

Stormwater Management / Temperature Regulation / Water + Air
Filtration / Carbon Sequestration / Creating Community

FACILITATORS:

Biomimicry Professionals, Christine Lintott and Anne-Marie Daniel use Nature as a guide to addressing urban design challenges.

JUNE 7, 12PM - 4PM & JUNE 8, 9AM - 4PM

Horticulture Centre of the Pacific, Victoria, BC

REGISTER: annemarie@naturnd.com

EARLY BIRD RATE $400 | REGULAR RATE $700

Maximum 24 Participants. Refreshments Provided. Please bring a water bottle.